

I urge you to maintain the "do not call" ruling as is. Despite being on the current list, I still get solicitation calls and resent this intrusion into my home. Since calls are already slipping through, that will increase if the guidelines are loosened.

Thank you.